From the President

I hope everybody has his or her photos ready for the contest. The judge we have lined up is a photography instructor at Kirkwood and teaches at the University of Iowa. He is excited about coming to help us with our contest and will no doubt have many comments about our work. There will be lots to look at so even if you are not entering any of your work, just come to enjoy.

September is coming up fast and that means it is elections time. So, I am looking for volunteers to be on the nomination committee or to run for office. If you are interested, please drop me a line. (PS No volunteers just means people will be appointed) The current officers are listed below.

- President Clair Franzen
- Vice President Jim Zelle
- Secretary/ Historian Dave Detwiler
- Treasurer/ Membership Pat Boland

There are also many people that give their time to take care of chores for the club. Here is the current list.

- Equip. Checkout Mark Bortz
- Exhibit Director Gary Hamer
- Newsletter Jennifer Rand
- Webmaster Lee Ann Gruchow
- Darkroom Coordinator Kathy Rutherford

If any of you are willing to continue or if some one else is interested in taking on one of these projects, let me know. Jennifer has informed that she plans on retiring as the newsletter editor so we are looking for some one for this project.

The only other news is that the 3 new safelights are installed in the darkroom and the scanner computer is up and running.

That's it for now

Collins Photo Club (CPC) August Meeting Minutes

The regular meeting of the Collins Photo Club (CPC) was held on Thursday, August 24, 2003, 7:30 P.M. at Photo Pro, Lindale Mall, Cedar Rapids.

- As the meeting was used as an educational outing, no regular business was discussed.
- Prior to the meeting CPC members were asked to bring scratched, faded, or old negatives and slides to the meeting. A number of members brought negatives and slides to the meeting for Photo-Pro staff to demonstrate their software, scanning, and printing capabilities when dealing with these circumstances.
- Members were split into two groups and spent time observing the scanning of negatives and slides, use of "Digital Ice" and "Adobe Photo Shop," and the color printer and its capabilities.
- CPC members who brought in negatives and slides were pleasantly surprised at the quality of the prints given them.
- Thank you Dave Johnson and staff for an interesting evening.

Respectfully submitted by David Detwiler, Secretary
